

OVERVIEW

Searsucker San Diego embodies the social dining experience by encouraging guests to come early and stay late. Menus feature tongue-in-cheek dishes prepared with elevated craftsmanship. Creative twists on New American classics range from shared plates and small bites ideal for the whole table, to farm and ocean dishes that you'll want to keep all to yourself.

Inspired by the simplicity, relaxed and feel-good vibe of the searsucker fabric, the comfortable retreat in the heart of the bustling historic Gaslamp Quarter invites patrons to relax and enjoy. The airy design features an open kitchen, a lounge space with comfortable seating and a lively bar area. Patrons can watch the action, chat without boundaries and feel as if they're at a friend's dinner party rather than a restaurant. Because who doesn't love a good get-together with a cocktail or two?
